The Dimmer VIEW

BY MAX GOODWIN

I am pleased that J. (for Judge) S. Waldrep, chief county building inspector, has stirred into action concerning complaints from motorists in unincorporated areas that fence hedges and bushes at many intersections are contributing to traffic hazards. Exactly what we've been saying for years.

What happens is that winter rains cause well-fed plants to grow fantastically fast this spring before their owners realized it the plants cut off vision. Accidents occur and complaints result.

Waldrep has issued a warning that the 1947 zoning ordinance limits front yard hedges to 42 inches. Side and back yard hedges are limited to six feet.

Violation, he points out, is a misdemeanor and as such is punishable by a $500 fine and six months in the county jail.

This column, from time to time has issued the same warning that inspector Waldrep is now issuing. We have run locations from time to time where the condition was particularly dangerous. In every instance, the homeowner has enthusiastically cooperated when the danger was pointed out and these corners were "daylighted".

In the interest of safety, to our neighbors, and yourself, take a look at your corner growth. If it is higher than the law allows, whack it down to legal limits. If there is any question, call your county building department at Civic Center. The number is BElmont 9-7561.

The county fair at Del Mar [illegible] has elevated itself by name to the "Southern California Exposition" is going to give away $130,000 in prizes this year.

Part of this money comes from the tax system the major part of which, I believe, is from race track betting.

I don't hold anything against fairs, races, or even taxes to a modest extent so I'm not carping about the size of the prizes.

What I'm doing is warning you that this is partly your money . . . and you can recover some of it simply by cooking a better pie, or making a better quilt or showing a better breed of pigeon. Enter your specialty in the competition, and walk away with a major prize. I have the feeling that our readers are smarter than most of the other exhibitors so winning should be a cinch.

Go get yourself a trophy and a bundle of cash!

There is more and more emphasis being put on the giving of scholarships by local groups and clubs and this is good. The Lemon and this is good.

The Lemon Grove Woman's Club recently set up four which were earned by some of the finest youngsters in our community.

I talked to one of the winners, a 17-year-old lad named Charles Gimber who lives at 9045 Lemon Street in Spring Valley. He had won a $25 math scholarship.

Charles is a senior at Mt. Miguel. He has already absorbed all the math courses the school normally gives, plus some they whomped up to satiate his mathematics appetite.

He additionally passed three math semesters at San Diego State. These include one semester of analytic geometry and two of calculus. It is plain to see that this scholarship is a good investment.

Is there a need for scholarships? Well, Charles is the son of a widow. His father, a former Spring Valley mail carrier, died [illegible] heart attack three years ago. [illegible]mother keeps the family to[illegible]er by baby-sitting. A 19-year old brother, Garfield, incidentally is hoping for the day when Charles can start earning so that he may return to his math study.

Charles plans to pick up a doctorate in math or physics at Cal. Tech. and eventually do research in physics or take to teaching. He told me the missile-atomic age had opened vistas more fanciful than the space-cartoon books he and his contemporaries were reading a couple of years ago.

Junior High 'Code' Is Revealing, Sound

Several weeks ago in a joint undertaking of the Lemon Grove Junior High School P-TA and the student body, a code of ethics and behavior was begun.

The groups met often and separately to develop a code by which parents as well as youngsters approaching adulthood could guide themselves.

There was much give-and-take, and many compromises have resulted according to Robert Sutton, principal of the school.

We promised to publish the results of these studies and recommend is for reading to parents with growing children.

A CODE OF ETHICS FOR HIGH SCHOOL BOYS AND GIRLS AND THEIR PARENTS

USE OF THE TELEPHONE

Calls should be limited to 10 or 15 minutes. The numbeer of calls should be spread over a period of time with a time interval between calls at least the length of the previous call. Courtesy on party lines is very important. There should be no "listening in" on other calls; other conversations should be interrupted only in cases of emergency.

HOME DUTIES AND ALLOWANCES

The following is a list of duties every boy or girl should perform as part of family life unless health or circumstances indicate otherwise:

GIRLS—make beds, keep room clean, wash dishes, assist in taking care of younger children, contribute to weekly cleaning and ironing.

BOYS—mow lawn and do other yard work, assist with dishes, wash car, keep room and clothes in order.

The items listed above should be done without pay. Extra work or projects at home should have remuneration. An allowance should be given, and the amount should depend upon what it is expected to cover. (Both parents and students stated that situations vary too much for agreement on a set amount.)

FRIENDS

Parents should meet close friends, but it may not be necessary that they know casual acquaintances. Parents should not select friends for their youngsters; however, it is felt that parents should discuss the effect that companions have upon their lives and how necessary it is that they select those with high ideals.

Overnight visits to other students' homes should be permitted only with complete knowledge

County May Sell 'Center' For Funds For New Community Building

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The board of supervisors was asked to approve the sale of the Lemon Grove Youth Center on School Lane and use the proceeds to erect a new facility on a four-acre county-owned site near Washington and Alton.

Request was made by Frank Armstrong, president of the Youth Control Board. He said the building could be financed from $75,000 previously set aside for a library in Lemon Grove. The library cannot be built from these earmarked funds however because of restrictions by the state on using general funds moneys for libraries.

The Youth Center, which is actually used for adult activities too, is now in a commercial zone and would bring a good price, Armstrong told the supervisors.

Supervisor Dave Bird asked Armstrong if he had approval of the Sonka family for sale of the land. The Sonka's gave the land on the condition it be used for Youth purposes. Armstrong said he believes the Sonkas would approve. Bird said "I want that signed on the dotted line first" (that they would permit the county to sell the land).

Supervisors did not indicate early action on Armstrong's request. They told members of the audience who had come to protest moving the youth center to a new site that they would be given plenty of notice of any change. Mrs. L. D. Blanchard, one of the property owners near the four acre county site said there was no reason to move the youth center. She said it could be made larger. Then both took Armstrong's proposal to the County Counsel's office to check the legal factors. The department of public works was directed to discuss the land sale with the Sonka family, and financing a new building was referred to the budget committee. The $75,000 reserved for library construction will remain at it is, supervisors indicated.

Bird said Lemon Grove must have its library and he was hopeful the state law will be changed.

She had been a resident of the area for more than 16 yeras.

Mrs. Elizabeth Seymour Robinson will be registrar.

CENTER TO OPEN OCTOBER 1959

WORK BEGINS THIS WEEK AT COLLEGE GROVE SHOPPING CENTER

Construction of College Grove Center will provide employment for about 1,500 workers, and when the huge $14 million project in Eastern San Diego County is completed it will create 2,500 new retail jobs.

This impact of the regional shopping city at Freeway 94 and College Avenue on the economy of the San Diego area was to be told this week at the Thursday ground-breaking ceremonies on the 70-acre site for 80 stores.

M. C. Birnkrant, of Los Angeles, principal owner of the center, will reveal that 500 men will be needed at the peak of construction, plus another 1,000 required in fabricating and supplying material.

George A. Scott, president and general manager of the Walker Scott Company, was to disclose that his concern alone will employ 750 people in its College Grove Center department store. The three-story Walker Scott store will be the largest enterprise in the center, being half again as large as its downtown store.

E. Phillip Lyon, of the Phillip Lyon Company, of Los Angeles, leasing agent for the center, will announce that lease commitments on 75 per cent of the center's initial 650,000 square feet of floor space already have been made.

John Graham, president of John Graham & Company, New York and Seattle architectural and engineering concern, will describe the advantages of a multi-level center, such as College Grove, which his firm designed. Graham estimates 1,600,000 man-hours of labor will be required to direct construction.

Site preparation will entail moving more than 800,000 cubic yards of earth and take about three months, after which building construction will begin. This will take about a year. Target date for opening the center is October, 1959.

Ground breaking, scheduled for 1:15 p.m., is to be preceded by a buffet luncheon to start at 11:45 a.m., and ceremony to follow, both under a tent erected at the eastern edge of the site. Nearly 40 guests have been invited to the affair. Graham and Lyon will arrive by helicopter about 12:30 p.m. being ferried to the scene from Lindbergh Field.

The ceremony, presided over by Scott, will start at 12:45 p.m. with invocation by Dr. Wayne A. Neal, executive director of the San Diego County Council of Churches. Brief remarks by Birnkrant and Graham will follow. Lyon will be introduced, as will lessees or their representatives. Scott will then tell of the role of the Walker Scott Company in the center.

At the head table will be Mayor Charles C. Dail; Dean E. Howell, chairman of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors; Robert L. Black, president of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce, E. M. Newton, president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce; Birnkrant, Graham and Lyon.

Guests will then leave the tent to watch the actual ground breaking to be performed by giant earth-moving machinery, with Birnkrant, Graham and Scott at the controls.

Benediction will be by Dr. Neal.

"College Grove Center," according to Graham, "will be a convenient, complete, integrated, easily accessible one-stop regional shopping center that brings together all kinds of stores which provide for customers the shopping facilities and services they demand.

"Operated as a fully integrated unit, the modern regional shopping city becomes a tremendous force providing the finest in shopping facilities and customer convenience. This is the principle of the true regional shopping center, and it has already proven successful wherever it has been correctly applied. It is the principle upon which College Grove Center is founded and upon which it will be operated.

"At the outset College Grove Center will be composed of a dozen ultra-modern one, two and three-story buildings containing more than 650,000 square feet of floor space, to be expanded ultimately to 880,000. In addition to two major department stores — including Walker Scott — and scores of retail stores set in acres of parking space for 5,308 cars initially and over 6,000 ultimately, College Grove Center will have a gasoline service station, restaurants, banking and medical-dental facilities.

"The center will possess distinguished beauty with a central mall for leisurely strolling free of vehicular traffic. There will be functional marquees for protection against sun and rain. Landscaping and lighting will be

'OPEN HOUSE' HELD FOR HIGH SCHOOL HOME EC DEPARTMENT

It was "open house" on Friday, for the girls' home economics department of the Mt. Miguel High School . . . their first. Under the experienced eye of teacher Mrs. Doris Powell, the girls did a splendid job of decorating the "living room" and the preparation and serving of a buffet luncheon. Guests included the faculty and members of the press.

There are four rooms in the economics dapartment. The living room with its student selected wall paper, its drapes, lamps and furniture, is a credit to the good taste of the teacher and her students.

The large kitchen lab at the rear of the apartment is very up-to-date, with 8 individual kitchens, 5 gas and 3 electric ranges, convenient cabinets and the latest in refrigerators and freezers.

There is a roomy, shelvy, pantry in the hallway, for the storing of canned goods.

The clothing room at the other side of the department is used for studying, instructions and demonstrations in home living. It has 15 electric sewing machines, spacious closets, "tote" boxes, where the students keep their patterns and other papers pertaining to their studies. The room also has two ironing boards and a dressing room.

Just off the living room is the kitchenette, equipped with the latest of fixtures, including a garbage disposal.

Mrs. Powell said she has five classes, each with about 30 students. These include all grades. The home economic study is an elective one and not required, but many girls are taking it that they may make better wives and mothers.

There are four divisions in the home economics department: Homemaking 1; Homemaking 2; Homemaking 3; Homemaking 4.

The child development and guidance course takes four to five weeks, and teaches everything about a baby, from baby sitting to infant care.

The food and nutrition course takes from 10 to 12 weeks. It takes in all phases of food preparation and diets.

Home management is a three to five weeks course. It takes in everything pertaining to running the home, including furnishing and budgeting.

Personal living is a three to six weeks course, taking in citizenship, family relations, dating, selecting a mate, preparing for marriage, family living, etc.

The final study, textiles and clothing is a 10 to 12 weeks course. It includes such important things as selection of goods, how to take care of your clothing and how to make your own clothes.

School Board Studies La Presa Sites For School

The La Mesa-Spring Valley Board of Education at their last meeting authorized the employment of an engineer to conduct preliminary studies on three proposed school sites in the La Presa area of Spring Valley. Ivan Nolan of the La Mesa Engineering Service has been named. One school (other than the three) is already being planned and the architect hired.

Other land being annexed to the LM-SV School District makes it necessary to look toward the future as far as schools are concerned. Some of the land of the Chula Vista School District and some from National City may soon be part of this District, according to a recent report.

Contractor John Goodwin, of San Diego and formerly of Lakeside, has submitted a bid of $189,841 for construction on the first units of the Maryland Avenue Elementary School. The bid was $16,905 below the estimated $206,748, according to Dr. Ted Dixon, assistant superintendent of the LM-SV School District. Construction should start this month and be completed by the time school starts in September.

'Glass' In Canned Sea Food Held Harmless Chemical

The San Diego Department of Public Health yesterday reported that it had received a number of calls from persons believing they had found glass in canned seafood, but the "glass" proved to be harmless crystals of magnesium ammonium phosphate, known as struvite.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director, of pulic health, said struvite is a crystalline substance that forms naturally in canned shellfish, such as lobster, crabmeat and occasionally in tuna. When shellfish are canned, he said, a chemical change takes place and the magnesium, ammonium and phosphate already present in the shellfish combine to form the struvite crystals that look like glass.

"Struvite crystals can be quickly identified as a harmless substance rather than glass particles by putting them in a little vinegar or vinegar and water," Dr. Askew said. "After a bit of stirring, the struvite crystals should readily dissolve."

Area 4-H Members Plant Trees in Descanso

Over 300 Jeffry pine trees were planted near Descanso by the members of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley 4-H group. There were 43 members and their parents who attended a talk by Assistant Ranger Heilman. He told of the need for trees in the area and what type of trees to plant.

The 4-H'ers cleared away spots three feet in diameter, made a basin for water and a mulch before the actual planting of the trees. The project was part of their conservation program for the year and a community service. The location of the planting is part of a future camp site.

HOME ECONOMY

The girls of the Home Economy department of the LG-SV 4-H group, were in a judging contest at the El Cajon High School on April 1. Sheila Cosby, president of the club, was mistress of ceremonies for the entire day.

Mrs. Kay Schlick, a professional model, lectured on good grooming and posture.

Several awards were given to the girls of the LG-SV group; blue ribbons went to Sandra Shipe, Ann and Chris Mathewson; red ribbons to Jane Chalmers, Zena Niermann, Ardyce Holmberg, Diane Anderson and Marilyn Humphrey; a white ribbon went to Carol Holm.

There will be a benefit barbeque at the Alpine Youth Center on April 27, and will last all day. The Junior Chamber of Commerce at El Cajon, who are sponsoring the barbeque, promise lots to eat and plenty of entertainment. Tickets will be $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children 12 and under. The proceeds will go toward helping to finance premiums for the June livestock exhibit by the F.F.A. and the 4-H groups.

A beef will be on display at the barbeque, which is to be given away at the El Cajon Fair on May 28.

Welfare Doctors Pay Experiment

An experimental program called "Operation Green Light" under which doctors in four California conuties will provide services to recipients of Old Age Assistance, Needy Children and the Blind without prior authorization in the State Department of Social Welfare's $29 million a year medical care program began April 1.

Any recipient of funds from the state welfare programs can visit any doctor of his choice three times during a 90 day period for any one ailment without prior authorization. If care is needed beyond the three visits, the doctor must request authorization for payment of continued treatments. The chiropractic profession will also participate.

The purpose of this "Operation Green Light" is to determine if the cost of the medical care program can be controlled by an after-the-fact review instead of prior authorization.

LEMON GROVE FIREMEN were among several departments on the county attending an oil fire control school at Carlsbad. The training was sponsored by C. H. Van Marter of the Union Oil Company for bringing this training phase to smaller departments which normally never have petroleum fire experience. 196 firemen from districts throughout the county attended the school.
Installation of officers of the San Diego County Fireman's Association for 1958-59 was also held at the Carlsbad get-together. Installed were Frank Berger, Spring Valley, president; Jerry Tipton, Division of Forestry, and Everett Stevens, Oceanside, vice presidents; Mark Foote, of Lemon Grove, secretary-treasurer, and Fred Dixon, Lemon Grove, director.
Lemon Grove Assistant Fire Chief Fred Dixon, retiring president, presided at the installation.

To such students go the funds of our scholarships. To those of us who are less pedantic go the fruits of their efforts.

Scholarships are easily given. A call to the office of your favorite high school or college will produce all the details.

Ginny Robinson and I are not going to deprecate the work of the nation's physicists and scientists but neither are we going to low-rate ourselves.

Ginny is a second grader in Mrs. Evelyn Lauritzen's Golden Avenue School. Principal Lauritzen says this little seven-year older has been turning in some written work that is worthy of note and she supplied us with a hand written self-developed sample. Says Mrs. Lauritzen: "When I see a second grader produce work like this, I feel assured I can answer any questions about whether we are starting science early enough, or whether business people will find the products of our schools to be acceptable spellers."

You can add my "amen" to what Mrs. Lauritzen says and read Ginny's work which follows:

OUR KITES

Did you know we use kites for other reasons than just for fun? We used kites for the temperature of clouds and in World War II it was used to send up radar reflectors. They also use kites for measuring wind speed and in World Warr II they used kites for gun practice. As guide searching ships and airplanes. They use them to take up cameras to make pictures.

and understanding of the parents concerned.

DATING AND GOING STEADY

Dating at junior high school age should be infrequent and with groups. Going steady means many different things. The practice generally tends to limit the range of activities and friends of the participants. It is therefore discouraged but not generally disapproved.

PARTIES

Parties should be held on Friday and Saturday night or before a school holiday. Parties should end at 10:30 p.m., allowing young people to be home by 11:00 p.m. Parents should chaperone for home parties; extra adults should be in attendance for large gatherings. Adults should not be a part of the party unless it seems suitable. No smoking or drinking in any form should be tolerated. Party members should remain on the premises. Invitations come from the host or hostess to each individual to prevent gate crashing. Parents should be responsible for arranging transportation.

MOVIES

Parents should know with whom their youngsters are going. Attendance should be on a Friday or Saturday or before a school holiday. Parents should be aware of the movie title. Conduct should be the same as though the parents were present. Boys and girls should return directly home after the movies to avoid any problem with curfew laws.

BEFORE AND AFTER SCHOOL ACTIVITY

Unless express permission is given by parents, boys and girls should proceed directly to and from school. "Going uptown" after school should be for a purpose and not to roam or visit.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

The school offers many clubs and organizations as part of its after-school activity period. In addition, many community organizations sponsor youth clubs. Clubs which are not affiliated with any recognized character-building agency or persons are private or secret clubs which are prohibited by state law.

HOMEWORK

Every student in junior high school should expect homework. The amount will vary in different classes. A minimum of 10 minutes for each subject (or an hour total) should be expected. Ordinarily, homework is not assigned on week-ends unless it is a long-term assignment. Parents concerned about excessive amounts of homework should arrange a conference with the school.

What's Doing At Mt. Miguel

by Mary Conlee

Mt. Miguel's first leadership conference will be held Friday at Camp Cuyamaca. It is composed of 100 student leaders and 14 adults and faculty members who will work together to plan the ASB and class activities for the coming year.

Bob Niebrugge, the present ASB president, will preside over the conference which convenes Friday at 4:30 and ends Saturday at 3 p.m. Reverend Donald B. Cooke if the Lemon Grove Methodist Church will be guest speaker. The conference chairman has been Cecelia Real, Commissioner of Cultural Affairs.

Planning sessions like class projects, school spirit, and special events will be held. There promises to be snow, so anticipation is at its peak. A final planning meeting was held last night in the Mt. Miguel cafeteria.

—Mount Miguel—

The county wide Language Field Day held recently at San Diego State College had many winners from Mt. Miguel. The students who placed in the respective fields are: Byron Cannon, second place in French; Silvana Carlassara, second place in German Declamation; Mike Myers, Silvana Carlassara, Stan Middleton, Doug Kirby, second place in a German skit; Carolyn Humes, second place in oral commands of Spanish; Larry Neises, first place in twenty questions in Spanish; Kitty Mathleson, first place in oral comprehension of Spanish; and Leanne Lane, second in sight reading of Spanish.

Palm Trees To Be Decor At VLM P-TA Meet

Swaying palm trees and soft hawaiian music will be the setting for this week's meeting of the Vista La Mesa PTA on Thursday at 7:45 p.m. in the school cafetorium.

This will be the 4th annual Fashion Show and PTA members and their children will model fashions that they have made themselves.

After a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. I. L. Arms, president, there will be native songs and dances by Deanna Fiester of Helix High School. The surprise event of the evening will be the appearance of "HULA" Hattie, which will be both amusing and entertaining to everyone.

Padres Seen As Pennant Contender

San Diego Padres' 1958 team will open its first game in San Diego against Phoenix at their new location, 7227 Friars Road, Mission Valley April 29 with an afternoon-evening double header. One at 2 p.m. and one at 8 p.m. Tickets can be obtained by writing to P.O. Box 212, Old Town.

General manager Ralph Kiner reports from Florida that things are shaping up nicely and that the Padres definitely would be a flag contender. He thinks the Padres, Phoenix, Seattle and Vancouver will battle it out for the pennant.

Governor Signs Anti-Diploma Mill Bill

GOVERNOR GOODWIN KNIGHT signed the Anti Diploma Mill Bill Tuesday which was sponsored by Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland.

The diploma mill legislation was supported by spokesmen for the state university, state colleges and private colleges and also by spokesmen for the medical profession. Governor Knight considered the matter urgent and opened the matter for a special call, thereby permitting its consideration in an extraordinary session. It is believed that this bill will eliminate the multi-million dollar diploma mill racket in California.

Many people who read my column write and ask me to talk more about Roses.

CARE OF ROSES

If you pruned your roses properly and sprayed them with a good clean-up spray, then fortified and mulched them, I feel that your roses are off to a good start. They do need attention the year 'round, of course, because they are susceptible to many different evils.

GENERAL SPRAYING

I always like to suggest a two-purpose spray one for this time of year . . .one that is both an insecticide and a fungicide . . . so that you won't need to spray too often. The occasional use of a material of this kind is sufficient for now.

SOIL

However, you should give the roses trace or mineral elements once or twice through the season by sprinkling a good product containing various minerals into the soil. Minerals, used propitiously will give you finer blooms, much better color and more luxurious foliage. My bulletin BETTER ROSES is always free on request.

Submarine Unit Seeks Added Personnel

San Diego County's only Naval Reserve submarine unit is increasing its strength to 120 members, according to Cmdr. H. J. Crosthwaite, commanding officer of Naval Reserve Submarine Division 11-43. Pay assignments are open for former submarine officers and enlisted men, Navy veterans without previous submarine service whose rates can be used in submarines or on submarine repair ships, and 17-18½-year olds who are enlisting in the Naval Reserve for the first time. For further information, call AC 2-6411, ext. 207.

Trailers May Not Be Towed Faster Than 45 MPH

California Highway Patrol warns. . . 45 miles per hour is the maximum legal speed for vehicles towing trailers on public streets and highways. This applies to all passenger motor vehicles regardless of weight or commerical motor vehicles weighing less than 4,000 pounds when towing any trailer coach, trailer, semi-trailer, or other type vehicle, and whether you are an owner or you rent a trailer. Also. . . proper lighting, approved connections between trailer and car and an adequate rear-view mirror are important. More details information can be secured from the local police department.

Square Dance News . . .

CIRCLE EIGHT

The Circle Eight Square Dance Club have some interesting plans for this year's dances.

Al Schaeffer was club caller for the dance on March 28, and the guest caller was the well known Lo Angeles caller Harley Smith.

The guest list was too long to take up space, but it was reported everyone had the "time of their lives."

Cookies and ice cream were served.

PROMENADERS

The "Spring is Spring" party of the Promenaders Square Dance Club, will be held April 23.

Frank Dyson was club caller for the April 2 dance at the S.V. Chamber of Commerce Hall. Guest caller was Al Ryder. Host and hostess were Paul and Charlotte Phillips.

The guest list included Jerry and Letha Gardner, Bob and Helen Smithwick, Carl Harpster, John and Waltena Bard, Frank and Dusty Harrington, Glen and Olive Otkins, Doug Fairbanks, Peggy Guthiel, Roger and Lee Bresvahan, Donna and Dex Briddle, Norman and Zabta Peterson.

HEARTLAND HOEDOWNERS

Heartland Hoedowners are having an April showers dance at the La Mesa Dale School Friday from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. All children in the Rolando area may attend the square dancing classes being held at Rolando School with Mrs. Rongey teaching.

Weinberger Asks Stiffer Dope Penalties

California should slap narcotic offenders with a 20-year minimum sentence instead of the present "mild and ineffective" one or two year average term, declared Assemblyman Caspar W. Weinberger, San Francisco attorney, and member of an Assembly committee studying the narcotics problem. Since 1950, juvenile narcotics arrests in California increased more than 600 per cent. Most were teenagers between 16 and 19. We might consider an even stiffer jolt for depraved peddlers who put narcotics into the hands of teen-agers. Weinberger also suggested a complete shakeup of the State Bureau of Narcotics and boosting that agency's staff of agents by 40 more employees. Weinberger is a candidate for Attorney General, sponsored by the California Republican Assembly.

☆ Wisconsin was the first state to establish an official highway numbering system, according to the Automobile Club.

Armstrong For Local Court

Frank Armstrong, Lemon Grove attorney said Friday at the Men's Club that he favored a judicial district to serve the area once served by the Homeland Judicial District.

Armstrong is a candidate in the race for San Diego Municipal District judge. He will run against L. N. Hussey, another Lemon Grove attorney who was recently advanced to the judgeship when the Homeland Judicial District was consolidated with the San Diego Municipal District.

Also in the race is Howard A. Muhleman, a San Diego attorney. Armstrong, too maintains offices in San Diego.

Armstrong told the club that he envisioned the time there would be 190,000 people in the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove area and that a court would be set up, probably in north Spring Valley or Casa de Oro.

The judgeship he is seeking pays $16,500 a year.

Drunk Driver Accidents Ratio 1-4

The California Highway Patrol's analysis of traffic accident figures in 1957 shows drivers who had been drinking were involved in one out of every four fatal accidents. Last year of 161,099 drivers involved in fatal or injury traffic accidents, 19,867 or 12.3 per cent had been drinking. These accidents resulted in the death of 956 persons, 25.9 per cent of the total killed in traffic last year.

Only when each individual refrains from driving or walking in traffic when his actions are affected by even one drink will we begin to fully control the problem of mixing alcohol with traffic.

Fire Commissioner Whitted Says 'Thanks'

Leland H. Whitted, recently elected board member of the Spring Valley Fire Protection District, wishes to thank all his friends and voters for the support and confidence in his ability they gave him in the recent election. "I shall do my best to perform the duties assigned me," said Whitted.

'Fallen Tower' Back By Popular Demand

As a result of the enthusiastic audience reaction accorded "The Fallen Tower" when it was performed in La Mesa, two more performances have been scheduled by The Beachcombers at the Puppet Theatre in Balboa Park on April 16 and 17. In addition, a free performance will give given for the Navy at Brown Field on the evening of April 9.

Critics who saw the Bernard Zavidowsky play commented on the meaningfulness of the problem exposed—one which faces all Americans in a world torn by racial tensions. Many humorous lines in the play, however, offered comic relief. The acting was considered top-notch, with excellent performances given by Rocky Caggiano, Leo Lewis, Donna Simoneau, Jim Davis and Barbara Arbuckle. Mr. Davis and Mrs. Arbuckle are both residents of Lemon Grove, and have been active with several other theatre groups such as the Heartland players, etc.

The Beachcombers are looking for an original 3-act play for their next production. Inquiries may be made by phoning Browning 7-1695.

Work Begins At College Grove

luxurious. There will be no unsightly delivery areas because all service will be underground. Deliveries will be made out of customers' sight through a tunnel under the mall. There will be no back doors at College Grove Center.

There will be innovations at College Grove Center. Among them will be an electric carillon, a non-denominational chapel where shoppers may rest and meditate; outdoor escalators; and complete air conditioning."

The center is located about seven miles from the heart of downtown San Diego and about a mile west of Lemon Grove.

Major lessees already announced in addition to the Walker Scott Company include J. C. Penney Company; Security First National Bank; Hartfield Stores, Inc.; Lawson-Schiller Jewelers; Central Federal Savings & Loan Association; J. J. Newberry Company; and Leed's Shoe Stores.

Construction of the center will be directed from College Grove Center's downtown office in the Land Title Building where a $4,000 scale model of the project is on display. Resident architect for the Graham company is James Michaelsen. Allen H. Perris is local representative for the Lyon company.

Visiting Nurses Visit More Often In Lemon Grove

Lemon Grove and other Heartland area citizens have increased their use of visiting nurses, a statistical report by the Visiting Nurses Association has revealed.

Miss Irvine Cross, president of the Red Feather Agency, said 135 Heartland residents last year received 2,722 visits by VNA nurses. In January and February of this year, she said, 53 patients have already received 528 visits.

Last year's visits, according to the report, break-down as follows:

Maternity, 54; communicables, (Tuberculosis and others) 454; Cancer, 343; Cardiac, 188; Diabetes, 8; Cerebral Vascular Accidents, (strokes) 214; and other diseases and accidents, 1461.

Miss Cross accredited the increased use of visiting nurses in the area to a better understanding of the VNA program by local doctors. She said most referrals to the agency now come fom medical sources.

Of the 2,722 visits last year, the report pointed out that 556 visits were paid for in full or part payment by the San Diego County Department of Public Welfare. Of the 343 visits to cancer patients, 88 were paid for by the Cancer Society. Three visits were paid for through private medical plans.

Part and full payment covering 1409 visits was received from the patients themselves. The deficit, plus funds covering visits where patients were unable to pay any part, was provided by the San Diego Area Community Chest.

Nurses serving this area are Mrs. Laura Galloway and Mrs. Alice Dye. They are headquartered at the La Mesa Welfare office, 4732 Nebo Street in La Mesa. Calls for service are made to the Visiting Nurses Association in San Diego and related to the area office, Miss Cross said.

M.H. P-TA To Have Fun Fair

Monterey Heights P-TA will meet this week on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the cafetorium. Among the events planned are: "Fathers' Fun Fair' featuring an all male baking contest; a Barbership Quartet with singers: Orval Butcher, Art Thomas, Richard Combs and David Spisak; and a spelldown between five fathers and sons. Mrs. Sue Spisak, serving as mistress of ceremonies, will do a take-off on the radio and teevee program "Queen for a Day" but using all male contestants chosen from the audience. Their wives will act as models presenting the gifts to the "King".

The flag ceremony will be presented by a group of fathers who are members of the Armed Forces. First grade mothers will serve refreshments.

Grove Demos To Hear Two Candidates

The Lemon Grove Democratic Club will present two Democratic candidates for political office at its next regular monthly meeting, Friday, April 11, 8 p.m. They are: Ted Boyett of Oceanside, who seeks nomination as U.S. Representative, 28th Congressional District; and Hugo Fisher, San Diego attorney, whose goal is the State Senate. These offices are now held by James Utt and Fred Kraft, respectively — both Republicans. The two candidates who will appear have been endorsed by Democratic club councils with which the Lemon Grove group is affiliated. The meeting will be held in the 7815 Mt. Vernon home of the president, Mrs. H. J. Warner, who will preside.

Other Democratic clubs in the area have been invited to attend, and an invitation is also extended to non-members who are interested in learning more about the issues involved in this year's campaigns, and the two candidates' views regarding them. The customary question-and-answer and discussion period will follow the two talks.

LOMITA VILLAGE NOTES

by Edna Rice — HO 0-6832

The first wooly bear caterpillars of spring are emerging from the canyon at the south end of Cardiff Street. These fuzzy black caterpillars are already wriggling their way up the street, up the sidewalks, and up the front yards. Remember the invasion of several years ago? Whole armies, rank and file, marched right up the street. State entomologists said that the wooly bear caterpillars always march north. Well, there are invariably the exceptions that prove the rule. We had all the exceptions. I know the scouts must have said, "Hey, fellows, come on! Plenty to eat here, even if a lot of it is weeds". County bug experts strewed poison bait in the canyon and put up a little plastic wall around the whole area. But that didn't fool the caterpillars. They climbed the wall. Then the kids rode their bikes over it. And Lomita Village became an open city for invasion.

◇ LOMITA VILLAGE ◇

When a bunch of us were shooting the breeze the other day at a college get-together, the talk got around to Caliente and quinellas and such things not usually associated with the halls of ivy. I mentioned the fact that my better half was a turf enthusiast and last summer he nearly bought half a horse. At which this highly educated lady, to whose very high IQ Idip my sheepskin in salute, looked at me blankly, then murmured, "Oh, you mean frozen?"

◇ LOMITA VILLAGE ◇

Cardiff Street welcomes the Johnsons at number 303, the former Jack Kelly residence and show-place of Lomita Village. The Johnsons are former residents of Sunnyside Avenue.

◇ LOMITA VILLAGE ◇

Lomita Village would like to thank Mr. James Reading and his staff at the City Traffic Engineering Department for putting up a new 25-mile-speed-limit marker at the southern approach to Lomita Village. Your reporter and several neighbors complained to Traffic Engineering after a heavy gravel truck bounced around the corner at the south end of Cardiff Street, veering too far to the right and then swinging sharply left until it came to rest in our front yard. It was a narrow escape for your reporter, then in bed, and our neighbor's hair turned grey with fright from watching it. The southeast corner of Cardiff is a danger spot, as the roadbed slopes downhill. Our City officials are on the job. In some cities danger spots are not marked until after traffic fatalities occur. Thank you, Mr. Reading!

◇ LOMITA VILLAGE ◇

Folks, let me tell you again about a very desperate need practically next door to us in Lomita Village. You've all heard about the Maude Erwin Foundation for Cats, Inc. at 4017 Bonita Mesa Road, Bonita. Last fall, that grand old lady passed away at the age of 86. Since her death, the friends of the Shelter have forgotten these sad and forlorn little orphans. Contributions stopped coming in. The kitties are hungry. There is no money left to feed them and they haven't tasted milk in months. And unless help comes immediately, this Shelter will have to close its doors after being a haven and a refuge to the helpless and homeless for more than 25 years, and many beautiful, innocent, and lovable little kitties will have to be put to sleep.

Please mail your contributions to the Maude Erwin Foundation for Cats, Inc., Box 66, Chula Vista, Calif. You can deduct it from your income tax. And, if you have a good home to offer, why not adopt a kitty?

And now I want to tell the boys and maybe the girls too — about the Kitty Shelter's yardman. He is a genuine, honest-to-goodness Sioux Indian Chief from Fort Yates, North Dakota, and his real name is Chiefe Jerome Red Cloud. Chief Red Cloud has worked all his life with animals. Name any circus or show you can think of, and Chief Red Cloud has been in it — Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey, L. G. Barnes Wild Animal Show . . . With Clyde Beatty, he was a cheif of the head-hunters of the Amazon; with Carl Hagenbeck, he worked wild animals all over Europe. And you should see his wardrobe! That eagle-feather Sioux Warbonnet! Those eagle claws and bear claws. And more Indian clothing and trappings than your your reporter has been outside the Heard Museum in Pheonix, Arizona. I don't know whether the Chief could be persuaded to talk to any boys' groups and show them his costumes or not, but at least you could ask him.

◇ LOMITA VILLAGE ◇

Your Lomita reporter wishes each and every one of you a very Happy Easter, hoping that this Easter season will bring to each one of us a little glimpse of a more spiritual way of life in order to make this a better world to live in. This thought ties in with a few things we have been wanting to say about Education. Our paper last week printed the names of the new officers of the Audubon P-TA. We heartily urge all Villagers, parents or not, to give Mrs. Carl Hinton, the incoming President, and her co-workers your fullest co-operation, for in our schools largely resides our hope for the future of our country and our own community.

◇ LOMITA VILLAGE ◇

Much has been said these past weeks on the subject of Education and Science and Russia. American educators have awakened to the fact that this nation has already outstripped us in the field of science, and we are taking steps to remedy this situation. Our local Board of Education is right on the ball. We can change our curricula. We can catch up with the Russians in their race for scientific supremacy. However, has the exact danger of Russian scientific supremacy been definitely pinpointed? I think not. We talk in terms of military supremacy, of the conquest of outer space. The actual danger lies in technological supremacy belonging to a Godless nation. We do not say that Russians, as individuals, are Godless. Many of them, indeed, are not. But unless a government acknowledges God as the omnipotent Creator of all, and acknowledges our duties and obligations to our fellow men, then there is danger. Think about it a little while, and then get goose-pimples.

◇ LOMITA VILLAGE ◇

Here are a few simple statistict. Exactly one-quarter of our nation is in schools. One in every 4 Americans or some 43 million young people are now enrolled in our public and private schools. In the next decade it is predicated that the enrollment will be up to 60 million. Furthermore, there is at present a shortage of 135,000 teachers. Our national total of school teachers is around 1,342,000. But out of this figure, some 100,000 resign and leave the profession each year. In other words there is a large turnover. Another situation that should be remedied is the matter of teachers' salaries. Did you know that 73% of the male public school teachers of this country are forced to take outside jobs to help support their families? Under these circumstances, can they give their best to the schools?

◇ LOMITA VILLAGE ◇

Now, to get down to brass tacks, what can we do specifically to help? First, we must be more than fault-finders. Belittling our schools and our teachers impairs their service to the community. I have seen it happen—not here, fortunately. And don't "let George do it". Second, let's try to promote a healthy respect for learning. Next, let's keep first things first. We must never lose sight of the fact that the primary purpose of the schools is Education, first, last, and always. Fourth, let's give the teachers the support they deserve. Back them up, and let them know you're behind them. They work hard for their money. They are a dedicated bunch and what they're doing for your kids means more to them than their salaries. Fifth, spiritualize your efforts. Sectarianism has no place in the public schools, but don't put God out the door. If we can stamp "In God we trust" on our copper pennies, can't we trust Him in our schools? America was founded on the concept that God is the "Author of our Liberty".

Sixth, we can encourage the best qualified to become teachers. Seventh, we can lead the way as parents. The home is the first and most important school of all. Eighth, let's show an active interest in school affairs. We can definitely work on that angle in Lomita Village. Ninth, we must protect local control of our schools. There are 59,000 school districts in this country. We are in one of them Proper control on a local level is the best-guard against an abuse which exists in many countries today. The danger with a highly centralized system of education is that a minority could impose vicious and harmful ideas on helpless millions. It has happened elsewhere. How do we know it could not happen here? And last, let's keep money in its proper place. If we show a propor concern for the true goal of education, then we will keep a sound perspective on money problems. In other words, we don't want to end up with elaborate buildings and inferior teaching. In charge of the Audubon Elementary School, we have one of the most able administrators in Southern California, Dr. Terencs Geddis, and a highly screened staff of teaching experts. Let's give them and our P-TA our fullest cooperation.

And now, Mrs. Carl Hinton, and your P-TA officers, may you have a most successful year!

The pupils and faculty of Audubon Elementary are enjoying their Easter vacation this week. The Kindergarteners last Friday put on their annual Kindergarten Easter Parade for parents and friends, and everyone had a wonderful time.

Forward Goes For Button

Frank G. Forward, prominent San Diegan, has been appointed chairman of the Citizens' Committee of San Diego County to retain State Treasurer A. Forward believes that Button has operated the State Treasurer's office in a business-like manner and deserves the support of both political parties.

Sue Pye Named To State School Conference

Mt. Miguel Junior, Sue Pye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pye, 10755 Challenge, La Mesa has been elected by the faculty and principal as Miguel's Girls State Representative to the American Legion Auxiliary conference being held at the University of California, Davis Campus, June 23 to July 1. The purpose of the conference is to promote interest and understanding of civic procedures through active participation in government on city, county and state level.

More Than Half Eggs Costs Is Feed

Feed comprised 61% of total costs of egg production in the recently complied results of the 1957 cost of egg production study conducted on 36 San Diego County poultry farms. The University of California reports that labor cost was the next highest cost item comprising 16% of total costs. Other cash costs including chick purchases, taxes, vaccines, supplies and services were 14% The remaining 9% of total costs included overhead costs of depreciation and interest on investment costs.

It is further pointed out that feed required per dozen egg is now averaging less than 6 pounds per dozen eggs, compared to 8 pounds of several years ago. This greater efficiency in the use of feed has been through better feeds, higher egg production and improved management.

Improved practices and mechanical equipment, according to Adolph, now makes it possible for for poultrymen to handle twice as many layers as ten years ago. The average of the study showed 96 hours labor per 100 laying hen for the year study.

Factors which were demonstrated in this study to be important to efficient low cost of egg production were cited as pullet performance by having 100 per cent replacement and use of labor saving equipment.

Complete results of this study are available upon request to the Farm Advisor's Office, Bldg. 1, 4005 Rosecrans Street.

EASTON

Wilbur W. Easton, City and County Tax Collector for the past 3½ years has filed for reelection and bases his qualifications on the experience he has had in the office for the past 25 years.

Easton was Cashier 11½ years, Chief Clerk 4 years, Chief Deputy Tax Collector 6 years and was elected to succeed Raymond B. Talbot when he retired from the office four years ago.

Easton has been a resident of San Diego since 1911 and resides with his wife Anna at 3878 Highland Avenue in East San Diego where he was City Clerk for five years previous to his employment with a local title company for 7 years.

Easton is a World War I veteran and charter member of American Legion Posts "6" and "201".

Easton believes his experience and record warrant another term as Tax Collector and sites the following accomplishments as evidence.

"In cooperation with the County Assessor and Auditor, I have initiated the preparation of personal property tax bills and the processing of payments of same by the most modern and approved type of mechanism. During the 3½ years I have served as Tax Collector I have made a determined and successful effort to have taxe deeded property returned to the tax rolls to bear its share of necessary taxation. The results to date include approximately $100,000 collected and the assurance of an additional $100,000. 50% of this money will go to schools in the districts affected. If reelected I will vigorously continue my efforts to return this tax deeded property to the County's tax structure."

EMBERS OF FIRE

Easter has come and gone. We were confronted with the greatest miracle which has ever taken place. Christ entered into death and then of His own accord came out again. Are there only a few dying embers left now or did Lent and Easter stir up a glowing fire which will burn brightly in our hearts throughout the year? The smoldering embers must be fanned into a flame of they die out. Intimate fellowship with the risen Christ will make us flaming torches and make Easter a year-round experience.

L.G. Lutheran Church Message

Raise Wanted By Local Bus Lines

The Economy Bus Lines, that run from Spring Valley to San Diego,via Lemon Grove, are asking a five cent raise in rates, due to extra expenses and state regulations. Mrs. Ellen Eflinger, in charge of the office (one of the stock holder) said that a request has been sent to the State Utilities Commission.

The fare from Spring Valley to downtown San Diego is now 35 cents, and the company is asking for 40 cents. The fare for the first two zones is 15 cents, and the company is asking for 20 cents.

The route of the bus line now makes all trips via the old Federal Boulevard and the rest along the Freeway after leaving Euclid Avenue. Mrs. Eflinger said the reason for the change is that there are not enough passengers at Euclid Avenue. The bus is express from Euclid Ave. to San Diego.

The Economy Lines have two drivers and three buses. There are two buses on the route at the same time. On Monday there are 11 round trips; Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, 10 round trips; and Saturday, 7 round trips. There is no bus service on Sundays or holidays.

CONCRETE BLOCK HAS ACCOUSTICAL QUALITIES

Sound absorption by concrete block walls is made possible by the textured surfaces that minimize sound reverberations. Actual tests have shown that walls of concrete block will absorb between 16 and 68 percent of normal sound, as compared with only about 3 perecnt absorption by other smooth surface materials.

These sound control qualities also make concrete block walls more effective in cutting down transmission of sounds from one room to another. Accoustical advantages are leading many commercial building designers and leading residential architects to select concrete block in Southern California structures.

The variety of types, styles and sizes of concrete block make possible infinite numbers of wall designs in many different textures and finishes.

PROFOUND QUESTION ANSWERED BY SERMON

The title question, "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is answered by selections from the Bible and "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy in all Christian Science church services on Sunday.

A strong declaration of God's supremacy over any other supposed power is found in the Golden Text from Jeremiah (17:14), "Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise."

In the restoration of Tabitha to life, as recorded in Acts (9:40), a vivid example of Christian power is detailed when Peter cast out sin, disease, and death. The account reads in part, "But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up."

Functional Fashions To Be Modeled For Helix P-TA

The Helix High School P-TA is planning a fashion show called "Helix Hi-Styles" that is unique in at least one respect, according to Mrs. Jens Hutchens, chairman. No new clothes will be shown, instead students will model all their own clothes, garments which have been selected as both attractive and appropriate for the many facets of Helix student life. The outfits will include all school uniforms, robes and costumes curricular activities.

The committee will stress the Scotch theme in decorations, music and entertainment. Even the refreshments will follow the motif, being thriftily included in the 50 cent tickets. Wee Scotch cookies and Heather punch will be served by Scotch lassies during the intermission.

The fashion show will be presented May 6, at 7:30 p.m., in the La Mesa Junior High School auditorium. The proceeds will be used for scholarships to be awarded to two deserving seniors at graduation.
